You Can Be Cured.

No. 11 Cedar Terrace,
Hoy Springs, Ark., April 26, 1903.
When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.
A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so loud in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her.
I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.

Mrs. Finnegan had little hope of relief because she knew that every time she had those spells of menstrual suffering with attendant bearing down pains she was weaker. And every month the pain was growing more severe.

But Mrs. Finnegan was cured by Wine of Cardui. She is now so well that there are few women who would not be glad to have the health she has. And any woman who has those dreaded bearing down pains can have the same relief.

You can be free from menstrual irregularities if you take this pure vegetable wine. Why don't you take it when you see what it has done for others? Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

Secretary of State Comes In for Roasts By the Irish Society Clan-Na-Gael.

MAKE STAND FOR RUSSIA

Government's Policy Regarding Far Eastern Affairs Roundly Scored—Friendship for England the Cause.

New York, Feb. 29.—A meeting of the academy of music under the auspices of the Clan-Na-Gael to celebrate the 125th anniversary of the birth of Robert Emmet has adopted resolutions scoring the so-called policy of the United States in the far east and asking that the burden of favor be turned to Russia rather than Japan. The resolutions, which were of considerable length, inveighed against all entanglements with foreign nations, scored the action of the state department, in this regard, and continued:

"We denounce the proposed arbitration treaty with England as a thinly disguised alliance, publicly avowed by its English sponsors to be the first step to an open alliance, intended to serve British interests alone and to enable England to wage war on other countries with greater freedom."

Many recent acts of the state department were singled out and criticized by the resolutions, which attributed Secretary Hay's motives almost entirely to friendship for England and hostility toward Russia.

POLICE MAY RAID HOTEL.

Court Decrees That Restaurant Keeper Cannot Stop Officers.

San Francisco, Feb. 29.—The police of San Francisco have a perfect right to raid the Hotel Nymphs, at 739 Pacific street, even if they have to enter the place through the restaurant kept by one Vincent Luccich, who since January 16 last has, by the aid of the injunction law, been endeavoring to prevent the officers from entering the resort. Judge Hebbard, in whose court the injunction proceedings have been pending, decided yesterday that the restaurant was only a blind, that unless the dens in the rear were allowed to remain open its proprietor would be his own best customer, and that therefore it was maintained simply to cover the entrance and exit of those who occupied the dens and visitors to the place. In accordance with this decision he dissolved the order temporarily restraining the police from raiding the place, and denied the motion of Luccich's attorneys to make the injunction permanent.

Judge Hebbard decided the matter from the bench at the close of an argument by the attorneys for the police.

CANCEROUS ULCERS

ROOTED IN THE BLOOD.

After the age of 45 or 50, when the vital powers are naturally weaker, it is noticed that a hurt of any kind heals slowly and often a very insignificant scratch or bruise becomes a bad ulcer or sore. At this time of life warty growths, moles and pimples that have been on the body almost from birth begin to inflame and fester, and before very long are large eating ulcers. Whenever a sore or ulcer is slow in healing then you may be sure something is radically wrong with your blood. Some old taint or poison that has been slumbering there for years, is beginning to assert itself, and breaks out and becomes a bad ulcer and perhaps the beginning of Cancer. These old sores are rooted in the blood, and while washes, soaps, salves, etc., keep the surface clean, they are not healing. A blood medicine to purify and strengthen the polluted blood and a tonic to build up the general system is what is needed, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy. No poison is so powerful and no germ so deadly that this great vegetable blood remedy cannot reach it, and ulcers of every kind quickly yield to its wonderful curative properties. If you have an old sore or ulcer, write us all about it; and medical advice or any information you may desire will be given by our physicians without charge.

WOMEN IN COURT FOR GOSSIPING TOO MUCH

Young Man Accuses Her of Circulating Stories That Cause Sweetheart to Break Engagement With Him.

New York, Feb. 29.—Mrs. Frederick Hartman, the wife of an eastern district business man, living at 134 Graham avenue, was in the Manhattan avenue court this morning charged with telling stories that not only reflected on the character of Felix Kettner, a salesman, of 625 Park avenue, but also caused Miss Annie Frank, of 158 Manhattan avenue, to break her engagement with him. The couple were to be married early in March, but a few days ago the young woman informed Kettner that she could not become his wife. On being pressed for a reason for her sudden change, Miss Frank said that the stories in circulation about him had caused her love to wane. Kettner immediately began an investigation and as a result of his inquiries he went to the court yesterday and got a summons for Mrs. Hartman's appearance today. Kettner said he learned that Mrs. Hartman had told friends of his that he did not earn his living honestly. It was this gossip, Kettner alleged, that caused Miss Frank to break her engagement.

This morning when the case was called Mrs. Hartman was present, but Kettner did not appear. It was explained to the magistrate that the young man's sweetheart had become convinced of his honesty and had consented to have the marriage take place at the date originally agreed upon. He had no object, therefore, in pressing the charge against Mrs. Hartman. The latter denied circulating stories about Kettner, and said she considered him a most estimable young man. She was discharged.

MANXMAN ENTERS DENIAL TO COMPLAINT OF LEONA

Oakland, Feb. 29.—To the charge made by Leona Bonne, a Chicago trapeze performer, against William L. D. Carey, the wealthy Manxman, that he proposed marriage to her in 1901 and then married another, the defendant today entered a general denial.

A few days ago Miss Bonne began a suit for $100,000 damages, which she asked as balm for her blighted affections and compensation for the wrong done her. Not having any knowledge to the contrary, Carey asserts for all he knows that she is a married woman. He denies that he deceived her or induced the fair performer on the bars to promise to marry him.

Carey in his answer admits that he was a married man during a part of the time he knew her, but says that he was divorced in Chicago on March 4, 1901. He denies that Miss Bonne confided in his alleged promise to marry her and having no knowledge on the subject denies that she has remained sole and unmarried or that she would now be ready and willing to marry him were he not already married to another.

Carey admits that he has some means, but modesty constrains him from admitting that he is worth as much as a quarter of a million dollars, as alleged in the complaint, and says his fortune does not exceed $100,000.

He asserts, however, that the plaintiff has not been damaged in the slightest by her association or lack of association with him and that she is not entitled to any of his money, and as a clincher pleads that all of her claims are barred by the statute of limitations.

Carey says that he is the son of Colonel Henry Carey, a British officer, who served with distinction during the Crimean war. He is sole heir to a large estate in the Isle of Man, but for some time past has been living in this city in a pretty home on Thirty-fourth street, with his second wife, who, before her marriage, was a Miss Ada Conger.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE CRITICISED.

Washington, Feb. 29.—Architectural changes made in the White House was the subject for a large share of today's discussion in the senate and they were generally criticised as falling far short of the improvements which should have been secured with the $500,000 appropriation for the purpose. The discussion rose in connection with consideration of the bill providing for a building for the joint use of the departments of state, justice and commerce and labor. Consideration of the bill was not concluded.
